Introduction

A perfect union between a man and a woman is a road of improvement and harmony.

Since the ancient times, Asian people have aimed to live in harmony with the surrounding world, without breaking the fragile balance of nature.

To mirror the perfect world and maintain its original integrity, you need to create its prototype in your own life. The world around us is a combination of active and passive things. Therefore, a union between a man and a woman has always been the necessary condition for a fully-fledged life. Bringing people closer to the perfect nature, such a union is a crucial factor in a happy, harmonious life on the Earth.

This is why it's so important to find the right person, who would bring harmony, energy, love, and joy to our life.

Each of us is a reflection of the surrounding world, its laws and properties. Different people reflect different aspects of the world. If you combine these aspects in the right order, you'll get a natural mechanism that works flawlessly. This is the key becoming a successful person and living a long, happy life.

A man and a woman are the two halves of a whole. Their union is a reflection of unity and perfection of life and nature. To discover this perfect world and enjoy its numerous fruits, you need to find your significant other, your one and only soulmate.

This book is here to help you make the right choice.

The Sun and the Moon

The Sun in the sky

The bright sun, which is the source of warmth, is the image of a perfect man.

Appearance

The Sun stands for the male gender. Men are fully formed, dynamic, and entrepreneurial. Men always aim to expand their dominance.

Internal qualities

Appearance may be misleading. It's the intrinsic qualities that make up the essence.

The people of Sun shine their energy outwards. Along with the energy, they send their thoughts and actions into the surrounding world. By radiating energy over a certain territory, they create their forms of governance in that area. This energy is the reason why men are active creators by nature.

The Moon in the sky

Moon has a secret – the image of a perfect woman.

Appearance

Moon stands for the female gender. By nature, women are small, fragile, and tender. They're considerate and reasonable. Subtle and compliant, women bring peace and stability to our lives. Their actions are full of grace and perfection. Females aim to remain mysterious.

Intrinsic qualities

The people of Moon keep their energy inside. They save and accumulate energy. Women are focused on their inner world. By accumulating energy inside herself, a woman creates life and brings children into this world.

Day follows night. Night follows day

*The Sun and the Moon are the two halves of a whole.
It's the image of a balanced love relationship.*

External harmony

The world, where the Sun shines and the Moon reflects and soaks in the sunshine, is a prosperous and harmonious place. A union, where a man creates for his woman and the woman makes good use of his creative energy, will be strong and indestructible.

Intrinsic balance

Active energy from the Sun must find a reflection on the surface of the Moon.
