Rescuers

We have got two cats, Matthew and Maurice. In general, they live amicably, although sometimes they can quarrel. All cat fights, as a rule, are arranged by Maurice, and Mat either watches what is happening from outside, decorously lounging on his sofa, or involuntarily participates in the captivity.

And once, on a calm summer evening, Mat was lying on the windowsill, dreamily watching the sun go down into the night, when Maurice appeared there.

Matthew

He hissed and suddenly pounded Matthew with his paw. The next instant, Mat disappeared from the windowsill and a dull blow was heard just below the window:
