How to work at the stories

Follow the simplest rules, namely:

1. First, analyze the sentence for grammar – the tenses and forms of verbs, active or passive voice.
2. If you don't know any words, use your dictionary or the Translate Google service <https://translate.google.com>
3. If the sentence has idioms, or words with difficult realities, use the search for their meanings or the realities here <https://context.reverso.net>
4. First, translate all sentences in the story, then learn all the new words and phrases, do the interpretation of these stories, retell them.

Sparkling water machines

I have got a childhood friend, Gella. Sometimes we arrange evenings with our childhood memories. These memories are sometimes very unexpected and moving. For example, yesterday we remembered soda machines with sparkling water. As a rule, they were close to the metro stations.
