Аннотация

Hello, dear friend (gender does not matter as it is an illusion). So we met... You probably don't remember me, I looked different, I had a different name, I had different habits, and I did a lot of things. Today I have come to give you what you have been looking for. Be careful, fight the fate, but do not offend people. I have always loved you, though my actions have sometimes suggested otherwise... love and now. See you later... "hug" and "smile" where words are not needed...

This book is quite expensive for both understanding and life in General, in particular for the financial situation of those who undertake to read it. If this moment is not afraid, after reading the subconscious will show You the amount that will need to be credited to the account of the author, contacts for communication you will find at the bottom of this work. Full version of the book " Teleportation. Technic. Opportunities. Consequences " with illustrations and explanations You will find on the official website of Nikolai Lakutin, it is given at the end of the book. Think ten times before you read on. This is dangerous fiction.

Introduction

To all those who are skeptical about this information, I suggest to perceive this work as another fantasy of Nikolai Lakutin. However, if you ever read this work and get acquainted with the facts, historical reports and the proposed technique, it is unlikely that you will then return to normal life, the one you live now. If you are satisfied, that's fine. Then don't pay any attention to what you've seen here.

All those who consciously plans to link their lives with teleportation-welcome. But this information is paid. I'll explain why. The fact is that most people are not ready to acquire this knowledge. If they find out about how to perform the teleportation, you will begin to Rob, to expose, to kidnap... the world will turn into chaos. This information is only available for those who do not need money. For those who have already known all the worldly goods and achieved all that he wanted. Such people are unlikely to use powers of teleportation to the detriment of society. Among other things, the development of technology still needs time. Ah and on case destructive behavior negligent teleports, I described several situations, which already had place be. I doubt you want to expose yourself after reading. In General, all those who are ready for a new level of presence on Earth are welcome. The world is much more interesting and complete than it seems.

Preface

One of the smallest particles of time, among the Slavic-Aryan peoples, our ancestors, was called-SIG, it was depicted as a Rune in the form of lightning.

The most rapid displacement with one seats on another was defined, as 1 whitefish, hence and old Russians expression: sigat, siganut.

What is 1 SIG, in modern units of time?

The answer makes anyone think, in 1 second contains 300244992 whitefish, and 1 whitefish, approximately, is equal to 30 oscillations of the electromagnetic wave of the cesium atom, taken as the basis for modern atomic clocks. Why did our ancestors need such small quantities?

The answer is simple, to measure the necessary processes. For example: the ancient expressions whitefish, siganut in the modern Russian language means – teleport.

Until the Wright brothers showed up and proved otherwise, it was thought impossible to take to the skies on machines that were heavier than air, just as it was with teleportation. Most people believe that matter cannot be transported through space, but they do not know that they have long been able to do so...

Before you pass on information about how to learn teleportation and apply it in everyday life, I must warn You about what awaits You in the event that You seriously decided at all costs to master the technique of teleportation.

The first thing to start this conversation is the so-called "side effects", what can happen in the process of mastering this information and then-practice.

The possibility of teleportation

There are two ways to achieve teleportation:

1. Technological method, based on the teleporters
2. The development of teleportation in a natural way

Both ways are dangerous, but effective. Now I will explain what it is about and what "pitfalls" are present in both cases.

Technological way to achieve teleportation

Obtaining technologically teleported objects is used on our planet not too long ago. In the middle of the 20th century, around the 1960s began the first practical experiments on the manufacture of telepods, devices that move objects in space. To move living beings did not yet know how.

To date, there are several very advanced technological telepods, differing principles of operation. They are able to move both objects and living creatures, animals, people.

But the technological method has a lot of disadvantages. Here it is not even that there is no possibility to move uncontrollably, most, in any place and time, the problem is much more serious.

Computers, programs and all human developments are able to work with matter. And the person has at least seven bodies, depending on how you count and at what angle to consider. So, the physical body, matter, to throw with the help of a telepod is not difficult. But the rest of the bodies technique can not work, and hardly learn someday to do it.

It turns out that the astral, mental, causal, and other information bodies of man lose it. Why are people after you move the technological way some time is in prostration? Because information-energy bodies of the person find a body of the dwelling with time shift. The moment of throwing the body from point " A "to point" B " does not coincide in time with the movement of human light bodies. In addition, at the time of transfer of material of the physical body, all other bodies lose their physical, and find it in the destination only after a few seconds, and then nastigayut your biological (body). It would seem a fraction of a second is not much, but it is enough to cause irreversible reactions in the human body. Periodic "juggling" of the body by means of technological installations leads to the fact that the spirit leaves the disobedient body, simply put, a person will die with a bouquet of incurable painful diseases.

The development of teleportation in a natural way

The method of mastering teleportation in a natural way is much more convenient. This process is coordinated, unlike technological. All bodies move at the same time, no misalignment and stratification occurs. It is possible to teleport whenever and wherever you want without any devices, supervisors and controllers in the dense plan.

There is no movement speed at all, the mechanism works in a completely different way.

The speed of movement from point "A" to point "B" does not exist, there is a transition through the void, which is much more efficient and mobile even compared to the speed of light. It is difficult to understand an unprepared person, but for understanding, I will say that flying saucers move in this way. They seem to push the space and at the time of movement are out of space, which is why they do not see even the most modern radars. Just do not track and You, unless of course will not be with a mobile phone, various chips and devices. Many extraterrestrials would take decades to get from their galaxies to ours, even at the constant speed of light. I personally know a person, a girl, who met with gray aliens, so you can not doubt their existence. In the books of Drunvalo Melchizidek (You will find it in the list of recommended literature) partially describes the process of creation and operation. But understanding comes long to ordinary consciousness. Here it is better just to trust yourself, your consciousness and go from one place to another through emptiness, through space, through a single connection with all things.

The most the main the danger in teleportation naturally lies in is, that for its implement will have get back a bit shift away mad.

I understand that now it sounds completely illogical and incomprehensible to You, but to get off the usual level of thinking, the so-called mind is a necessary requirement for the development of teleportation in a natural way.

Then you will understand everything yourself, from the lines described below. Terrible in this there is nothing, there is a kind of sliding on the edge, it is important not to play too much, otherwise you will get into a madhouse. There, to word, seats free not so perishing many and appeal to patients enough bestial, so that not advise there whom-either enter. In order to stay on the edge of everyday thinking and delicately go crazy, so that no one noticed it, in your life in the process of mastering the material will inevitably have problems. This is a natural and normal reaction of the surrounding world. You after all not think that over us no one and nothing there is no. We are watched, controlled, helped, protected. I'm not talking about people, of course, but this is a topic of another material, we will not go deeper. Here our curators also create all necessary situations that our habitual consciousness did not go off coils more, than it is required. If you take the problems encountered as you study and practice the material for a sign to give up and return to normal life, then regard the interpretation of events is not true. If You weren't supposed to be on this path, you wouldn't be able to get your hands on this material under any circumstances. Once again I will explain that the situations returning You to the course of habitual life will arise necessarily, it is a natural reaction and normal practice controlled by our curators. Decide to step on this path-there will be problems, but no more than usually happens, you should not be afraid of it. In addition, problems are also a matter of attitude to the situation. Most of them are not. All the difficulties that arise in our lives are very necessary. Everything always goes right, it is important not to interfere and treat with understanding, get your experience.

The remaining problems of the natural development of teleportation associated with You. With the level of spiritual development, the level of morality and morality. What will you do if you master these technologies? The first thing that arises in the minds of most – to Rob banks. Partly, therefore, this book costs a lot of money and is designed for those who do not have the need for financial fraud by means of the ability to teleport. Robberies, kidnappings, all sorts of setups – these are shitty thoughts. Such teleports will not live happily ever after. Mechanisms of capture and elimination of negligent people with superpowers are also developing and today have an Arsenal of lotions even more than the technology of the question of teleportation. It is important to understand why you need it? What will you do?" What won't you do?" Another nuance for teleports is the terrain, the habitat. In Russia, for example, teleports are more or less loyal. And here in Europe very much do not like, there trust people less, than at us. Well, with the ability to teleport, you obviously visit all possible corners of our planet. You have to be careful and honest with yourself. This is a prerequisite.

Consequences of teleportation

Possibilities of teleportation there are a few, but many will subsequently be temptations. And if with teleportation within third dimension problems can be not so many, maximum your activities will boils down on theft, perebrasyvaniem outsiders to in their interests far-either, for that very quickly will have pay off, then in case with teleportation in another space dimension, or same teleportation in time with unclean thoughts or simply imprudently, imprudently choosing destination, You risk prove in situations, similar two, described below:

1. In Kazakhstan, in the summer of 2016, during excavations in a rocky area, a man was found embedded in a rock. Of course he was dead. Judging by the period of stay in the rock, he spent at least several centuries there, however, strangely, he was wearing a sports suit of our time and a mobile device resembling a modern computer, only even more modern, we do not yet have such in use.

2. On Easter island in 1988, Professor R. Myers and his assistants W. Rhodes and Y. Longwell dug up a small swamp on the island and found in it... the remains of a medieval knight sitting on a horse, in full battle dress! Judging by the armor, it was a member of the Livonian order, in his purse there were three gold Hungarian ducats minted in 1326! Although until 1722, no white man set foot on the island.

The technique of teleportation

All genius is simple, you hear? It's true. If there are doubts that You will not be able to master this material and apply it in practice-do not worry. Everything is not as difficult as it seems, there would be a desire, and pure thoughts, then everything will turn out. The universe follows the path of least resistance and always does everything in the least expensive way. That is why the shortest distance between two points is a straight line. This is the basic principle of teleportation.

There are several ways to teleport naturally, that is, without resorting to any technological inventions. I have already said that for this you need to go a little crazy. What does it mean?

To go a little crazy means to free consciousness from the fetters of stereotypes and imposed by society thinking. People don't fly or teleport or do a lot of wonderful things, not because they can't, but because they don't allow themselves to.

Almost all human superpowers are just a matter of developing the level of consciousness. Not mind, but consciousness. At present, the consciousness and mind of man is in confrontation. In my book, the Attack of happiness, I tell how, from tool, slave, and ally, the mind of man passed over the centuries into the master. There is a failure of the program, our level of development has created an artificial intelligence. A lot of movies have been made on this subject, but we are not able to understand that this artificial intelligence is in our heads. This is a very powerful structure that has subjugated almost the whole world. There are not many enlightened people on earth who are free from mind. These people live in pure consciousness. Consciousness is something that does not require any logical conclusions, internal chatter and "clogging the ether" during wakefulness and sleep. It is pure knowledge of what is, what has been, and what will be. The great teachers have left us a great knowledge which says:

The ability of man to think is certainly one of the most outstanding abilities ever bestowed upon mankind. But the ability not to think is an even more valuable gift.

Here I have revealed to you the essence of my work "Attack of happiness". This is my gift to you.

There I tell that at the moment of achievement of the purpose, the mind still does not manage to close the task and to load subconsciousness with the following. And while this is happening, the person is in a state of euphoria. He is experiencing a "Fit of happiness." This is not because an "important" goal has been achieved. Or something very good happened. This is because the brain reboots for a while and leaves the mind alone. These are the moments when a person does not think about anything. In a state of absence of internal dialogue, when the mind does not obscure consciousness, a person feels happy.

What does this have to do with teleportation?

The most direct. Until You tell your mind to shut up and dismiss all doubts and fabricated arguments about the impossibility of your superpowers, freeing the way to consciousness, to the pure knowledge not only that teleportation and everything else takes place, but also about how it is done, you will achieve nothing.

This is one of the most important paragraphs of the book, remember it well. Almost all major work on the technique of teleportation is based on the assumption, to clear consciousness from the mind. On average, the development of teleportation takes from 1.5 years to 5 years.

On average, in two years, most get to achieve the desired result. I personally mastered teleportation through 2.5 year. I started practicing in January 2014, and in August 2016 I succeeded.

The most important thing is to remove that mold from consciousness called mind. It took me two and a half years. Free your mind, and it will reward you with abilities and opportunities that You did not know and did not dream of. But everything must be done carefully. Purposefully and slowly. If you are obsessed with the idea of a speedy teleportation-then move not in space, but straight to the madhouse. As soon as will feel that it became difficult, the brain "naraskaryaku" – stop. Even a little forget it all. Live your normal life until the old picture of the world is restored. Once everything falls into place – keep moving on. Your picture of the world will gradually begin to change. You yourselves moreover not unwittingly start to see structure air, especially well in sight on a white backdrop of, more accurately structure third dimension, You will see, that the world as would "not real", he as if would gossip. This is normal. It's always been that way, you just didn't notice it. The level of consciousness did not allow to see it, and it is necessary to thank for it artificial intelligence under the name mind. You are not your mind, know that. In most cases, the mind is Your main enemy.

Mind, like money, is a very good servant, but a very bad master.

Here is a good example of how the mind does not allow you to see what you see, as he believes, should not:

In the 2000s, a tribe of aborigines with no ties to the outside world was found in the hidden hinterland of the African continent. They lived and continue to live in the present day subsistence farming. They are dominated by traditional crafts such as hunting and fishing.

So twice a day, at the same time according to the schedule, passenger Airlines fly over them. The route runs so that just over their heads, on a clean not overgrown with high vegetation terrain fly every day for two aircraft. When the natives were asked what they thought about the objects flying over them, they did not understand the question. They were asked again and again, pointed to the sky during the flight of the plane, but they did not understand anything that they want from them. The existence of the planes, the inhabitants of a remote tribe, of course, knew nothing. These people did not perceive the planes above their heads, they simply did not see them. What is not included in the picture of the world of man – does not exist for him.

The same thing happens to the vast majority of people. Almost no one sees anything around them. People see only what their enslaved minds allow them to see. And times invisible, then and not believe in existence, this is logical.

Requirements for the development of teleportation

The key to teleportation, as well as to any other abilities like levitation, telekinesis, reading thoughts and transmitting them at a distance, walking through obstacles and much, much more is the three basic rules, the three whales.

1. Attention
2. Intention
3. Force

In the universe, on all levels and on all planes, the Trinity manifests itself everywhere. To achieve superpowers in the same way it is necessary to master three rules.

More about each of them.

At the moment of transition from point "A" to point "B" it is necessary to be always "here and now". It is important. No inner dialogue, no thinking, no chatter inside the mind. Let the mind rest, turn it off during practice. No need to think about anything. Only awareness of themselves here and now.

Start by focusing on what is happening to You and in Your immediate area, about an arm's length away. Teleportation takes place not on the borders of the body, but on the borders of the open portal. If the object moves alone, the boundary is commensurate with the size of Leonardo's cocoon. Below You will read, that this for zone, conditional support, its feet on width shoulders, hands outstretched in hand, slightly upward, on limbs fingers hands and legs can be will describe some cocoon in the form of eggs. Here is in these limits most often is happening teleportation. If you plan to teleport with someone, the zone will be correspondingly larger, Your light bodies will merge to the desired proportions of consciousness. Feel this zone around you, try to see it. This is the zone of one of the light bodies of man, feel it.

No less important is the intention. Intention involves not just desire, not just hope or faith, but the absolute knowledge of where You will move in a few seconds. Visualization in this case plays a key role. The stronger, clearer and more specific you imagine, or rather see in front of you the area in which you will move, the easier and faster the transition will be carried out. It is important that the destination is visualized not as it was when you remembered it, but as it looks now, at a particular moment. This vision will come to You, don't worry about it. Until you can see the desired area directly in front of you, just visualize it as close to this point in time as you can, it's important.

Ultimately, You will not even realize that the teleportation has taken place, you will simply find Yourself in the area that you saw in front of you a fraction of a second ago, being in another place. For a while You will feel like you thought you were in point "A". You will think that you just forgot about how you came here and are just here on some business, and the mind in due time will immediately find an excuse for what happened, citing partial memory loss. But two or three movements in space will restore the correct understanding, and everything will go naturally. The main thing in the intention is to feel yourself not here and now, but in the area in which you are ready to be in the blink of an eye. It is better to visualize with open eyes, it will give the fastest result. At first it will not be so easy to look at one area, and in the mind to keep the other, but pretty quickly everything will start to turn out, You will see those layers through which the actual movement will occur.

Force. Power is energy. It's a level of spirituality, a level of consciousness and a level of willingness to do what You do. At the moment of teleportation, the energy body of a person is pierced by powerful electric waves. A powerful electromagnetic field is formed, which works in accordance with the entire body and with all seven human bodies. These currents are always present within us, but at the moment of teleportation they are activated. A field of uniform density is formed, which moves You from point " A "to point "B".

The stronger the energy, the stronger the spirit, the word, the character of a person, the stronger and more stable the electromagnetic field.

When you practice teleportation – keep the order of the three above rules and over time, as the consciousness sees the opportunity and fueled by knowledge, it will move you wherever you want.

But don't get carried away. Energy is spent a lot, although it can not be felt immediately. Without the need, it is better not to move in space. At least not yet.

Now there are about a hundred active teleports in the world. Their number is growing. Very soon, I believe, in the 22nd century, teleportation will come out of the shadows on an equal footing with other abilities. Then many technological devices can be disposed of. Many businesses will close, and this is already happening. But in General, everything is going in the right direction. The earth has several times started all over again, the Earth and burned and flooded to wash away all the dirt tripled by humanity. Here, at last there was a chance to come to the spiritual enlightened almost primordial world peacefully.

Below You will find a confirmation of many things said and you will find the answers to your questions. And also get a recommended list of references to consolidate the material and films that reveal and show many of the moments that you look now at an unusual angle.

Visualized, felt themselves in destination, fulfilled all three rules teleportation described below, and proved there, where wanted. On the fingers, you will agree, it is difficult to explain. That is why the question – " How do you do it?"– always should the most precise the answer – "simply I take and do, so same as go, there is, I take those or other objects and all the, that routinely for You."

It's all about the level Of your consciousness. Once you allow yourself to acquire the ability to teleport, You will do so.

Pay great attention to your breathing. Take 7-10 deep breaths and the same exhalations a day. In these moments, try not to think about anything. This is difficult to explain, but these exercises are firstly very effective in restoring health, and secondly, greatly raise the spiritual level, and this is necessary for the development of teleportation and expansion of consciousness. These breathing exercises are of the same nature as Hatha Yoga. "enhanced fusion" translated into our language, a technique aimed at calming the mind. A calmed mind will no longer be able to influence your consciousness with fictitious prohibitions. By freeing your mind from Intrusive thought forms and uncontrolled chatter, you will discover abilities that you hardly know exist. You will die in the old capacity, but you will be born in a completely different one (not to be confused with physical death). The world will open up to you on a completely different side, You will begin to live...

And the last...

I almost forgot to add to the work of very important components that expand consciousness and move You in the right direction with incredible speed. For me this is usual and normal, but for most of You the most difficult and turning point may be a five-year taboo on the list, which I will give below. Do not use all that is given in the list below in your life, exclude it for 3-5 years, after which you will be surprised to look at other people from the position of enlightened, expanded consciousness and do not understand and do not believe that You were once the same.
