still silence

poems. volume I

cyril ioutsen

*Dark again.
Over trees —
a nightfall.*

*Beneath —
the starry skies.*

*Looking at the silence
of things
we cannot hear.*

*Listening to
the silence
of things
we cannot see.*

Poems

still going
somewhere

“abating storm...”

abating storm

leftover rain

abandoned

on the grass

the summit
the sun
keeps rising

the seagulls
carry the rain

“ absorbed...”

absorbed
in a daydream
a young frog
alone by the leaf

“across the fog...”

silence drifts
to the forest

“adjusting...”

adjusting
a pebble
on a beach
looks out
of place

after dark
returning
with a catch
of moonlight

“after dusk...”

after dusk
darkness
goes too

“after the rain...”

after the rain
too much sky
on the streets

“after rainfall...”

after rainfall
flooded
by sunlight

“after the snowfall...”

left on the ground
the clouds

“all of the sky...”

in a tiny pond
still summer

“alone...”

alone
among others
forest
trees

“already gone...”

already gone
before I saw it
a perfect view

“ always...”

always
summer
far away
somewhere

“ancient ruins...”

ancient ruins
outlasting them
modern garbage

“another spring...”

another spring
or perhaps the last one
again

“as if never...”

before and
yet again
autumn

“at cliff edge...”

at cliff edge
a butterfly
and me
it goes
farther

“ at dusk...”

at dusk
colors fading
one by one...
wary to be seen?

“at the edge...”

at the edge
of the leaf
the snail
 is lost

“at the window...”

at the window
on the dry side
of the rainstorm

“autumn...”

autumn
afterglow
of spring

“autumn...”

autumn

at last

so soon

“autumn...”

autumn
forest
bright
shades
of decay

“autumn...”

autumn
the last
leaf falls
and then another

“autumn...”

autumn
seeing it
for what it is

“autumn forest...”

and beyond
all there is

“autumn rain...”

autumn rain
sound of drops
still in the air

“an autumn leaf...”

an autumn leaf
in my mailbox
some message

“ awaiting...”

awaiting
the dusk
the snow
lingers
still winter

“awash with...”

awash with
the sound
of waves
waterfront

“ Bach...”

Bach
by the pond
frogs wait
for the cue

“back and forth...”

back and forth
on a forest floor
restless shadows

“balance...”

balance
nightfall
moonrise

“bare branches...”

bare branches

few leaves

free to share

dark skies

with stars

“Beethoven...”

Beethoven
in the storm
thunderclap
 steps in
for timpani

sharing

solitude

“birds in the sky...”

never lost
in thought

“birdsong...”

birdsong

leaving

no echo

bitter cold
a sentinel
for a pine
an old raven

“ bizarre...”

bizarre
when up close
fire in the fog

“ bonfire...”

bonfire
in its midst
a shape of something

“both black...”

both black
and white
the snow
in the dark

“a breeze...”

a breeze
a breath
a breadth
dreaming
of a beach

“briefly...”

briefly
before sunrise
silence

“bright sun...”

bright sun
city shadows
almost dark

voices

playing on the grass

tree shadows

“city fog...”

city fog
no more
skyscrapers

“city into sky...”

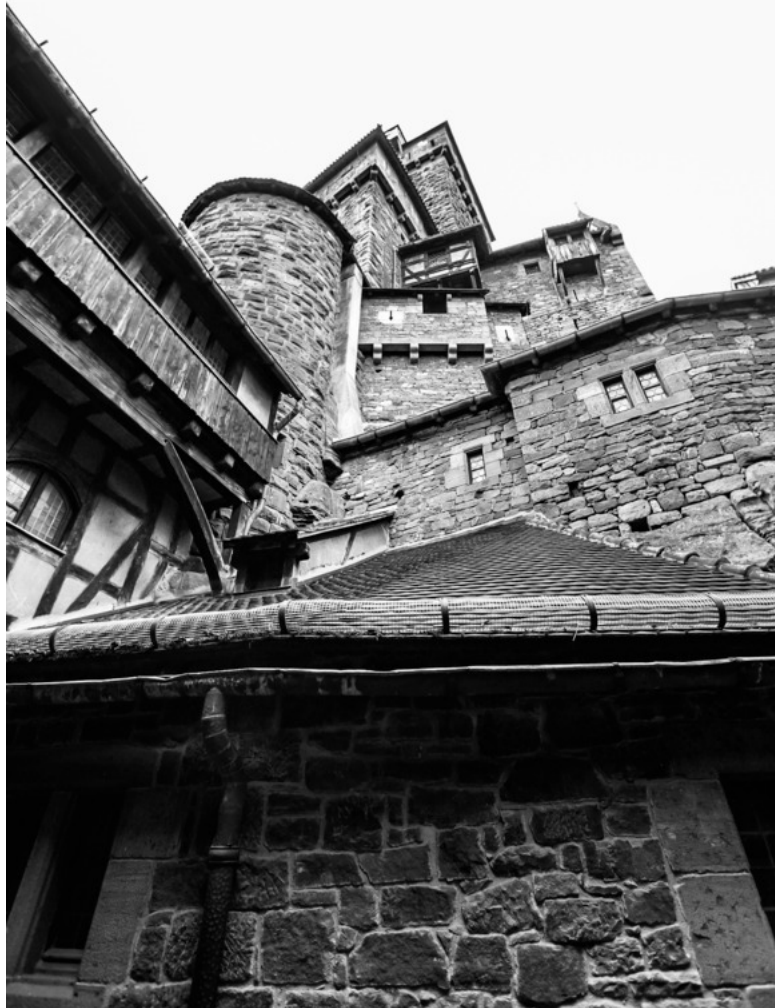

city into sky
starry night
without end

city park
a lamp post
among trees

“ city park...”

city park
my ringtone
a bird
answers

“city stars...”

below more than above

“clear water...”

clear water
all the junk
I can see

“ cliff edge...”

cliff edge
beyond the sea
falling stars

“cold autumn...”

cold autumn

the leaves

trembling

in the wind

“the color of fire...”

the color of fire
in the dark
of night
embers in the storm
fireflies

“colors into...”

colors into
shapes into shadows is
 darkness

“cooling...”

cooling
in the heat
birdsong

“ coolness...”

in the air
nothing else
across the dark meadow

“countless...”

countless
stars and
one lamp
dimming
them all

“country road...”

country road
a dog growls
when I stare

“crescent moon...”

crescent moon
wondering about
the rest of it

“crickets...”

crickets
fall silent
the night
remains

“crossroads...”

crossroads
everywhere
evening
one way
sunset

“a crow...”

a crow
in the sky
trapped
in a poem
