The mystery of apartment theft

Chapter 1

Well, the summer is over, go to school again. Since that time, as I passed the first investigation, nothing happened. We finished the first quarter and November. The first of December to the first lesson, the door opens and the class includes blubbered Mary Fedorchuk.

– Masha, what happened? – asked our classmate Elena Viktorovna.

– We were robbed-said Masha, already barely restraining herself from crying again.

–Come in and take your seat."

At recess, Masha was surrounded by the entire class. It turned out that money, jewelry and ... a cat were stolen from her. All our people looked at me (they knew about my case*)

– Anya, will you take this case? Emil Tszyu, who had long been in love with Masha, asked.

– Yes, I'll take it – I decided-Masha, can you come to me after school?

– Yes-said Masha.

I was on tenterhooks for the rest of the school day, because I wanted to interview a robbery victim for the first time in my life.

* – Read the book " the RIDDLE of NOISE in the ATTIC»

Chapter 2

The school day was finally over. Masha and I rushed to my place. When we arrived, I picked up my notebook and pen and started asking questions:

"Mash, what was stolen?"

–All the money that was at home, the jewelry: two pairs of identical ruby earrings, a sapphire ring, and Lucy. This is our cat. She is completely black, with different eyes, one green and the other yellow. She was wearing a purple collar.

"Yes, the theft is strange. Hey, you're someone talked about this?"
