The sign of Aquarius

Element: Air

Quality: Fixed

Simbol: The water carrier

Planet: Uranus (Saturn)

Out of thin air, saturnine frosts magically crystallize patterns onto smooth surfaces. Aquarius is the fix Air. Like It fixed the idea that will inform and definid future development. It is simultaneously aware of uniqueness and connectivity. There is always a wacky idea innovators.

The myth of Aquarius

The Aquarius depicts the figure of a youth holding a vessel, from which water flows. The myth of Aquarius has several versions. According to Greek mythology, Zeus kidnapped a young boy and made the cupbearer to the gods who would fill the Greek deities' wine cups whenever empty. Aquarius is associated with name of Ganymede, the first mortal ever to become immortal. He stands with what appears to be either nectar, the drink of the gods, or water coming out of the cup.

Another version said God, sent a great deluge to cleanse the world of corruption.

The symbol

The astrological symbol for Aquarius is said to represent waves or ripples of water influencing Aquarius horoscopes.

Aquarius: «I look to the future!»

According to the astrological calendar, the era of Aquarius will last for about 2000 years, and during this time mankind will be characterized by the features of this sign. Aquarians are visitors from the future, for the realization of their ideas is not the present: so forceful is this impact met they sometimes do not understand their own purpose in life. But hidden behind the internal distractions there are often brilliant ideas. About 80% of famous people are born under this sign.

Aquarians are good-natured in character. They are friendly, diplomatic and honest, although occasionally they can be a little absent-minded and timid.

They always seek to do everything individually. They have an impressionable nature, with a heightened emotionality and nervous excitability. They are smart, diversified, energetic, active and are often original in thought and action.
