Introduction

Nobody wants to go to jail, but some of them still find themselves. How to spend this time with dignity, and maybe even with benefit? In prison (prison, colony) their lives, their own orders. Prisons differ from each other, the cameras are also all different. But they have in common. Those are the basic rules that allow you to exist in places of detention relatively in order and safety. Save in prison health, incl. Mental, and life, that's the task of every prisoner. How to do it with the least loss, here will help everyone who wants questions (and answers) of this test.

They say that the army is a school of life. A real school of life is a prison. And pass it – a great test. Here a person can be seen right away who is worth what. Here for months and years, smart and stupid, strong and weak, zdy and kind people live side by side. Prison – it's scary. But you should not be afraid of her very much. And here many remain people and live in it, without losing their honor and dignity. What do you want, on occasion...

The test consists of 17 questions and 4 possible answers to each of them. Answer all questions, count the scores received and see which conditional group you belong to. What if the result does not suit you? Look at all the test questions again and analyze your and all possible answers. This tells you how to behave in prison (God forbid) and in other (difficult) situations.
